LOCATION:

Markinch is a well-established town located immediately to the northeast of the former new town of Glenrothes with a residential population of approximately 2,500. There is a local mainline railway station located south of the property, and a good variety of local independent retailers active within the nearby High Street and Balbirnie Street, which together form the main arterial traffic routes through the town.

The property is located on the east side of Commercial Street. Parking is available on Croft Road adjacent to the front of the property.

The location of the subjects is shown on the appended plan below.

DESCRIPTION:

The subjects under report comprise a ground floor retail unit with upper floor storage, which forms part of a traditional brick building contained under a corrugated industrial roof.

The unit benefits from a large double frontage and can be entered by way of a recessed entrance door, all providing good natural lighting to the unit. Currently there is ground floor retail space and first floor storage space.

Additionally, there is a w/c on the ground floor.
