A recently extended and re-modelled Victorian cottage enjoying the most idyllic position adjoining open countryside with the most fabulous views.

Originally two Victorian cottages dating back to circa 1880, Malvern Cottage has been transformed into the most stunning detached cottage, located within a tranquil village setting. The current owners have recently extended the cottage to provide a stunning 19' kitchen/dining room and principal bedroom enjoying the most attractive views over unspoilt countryside. With its private 'South facing' garden adjoining the village allotments, Malvern Cottage offers the most idyllic setting whilst only a short drive to junction 5 and 6 of the M40 and Princes Risborough station for a comprehensive service into London Marylebone (under 40 minutes).

On entering the property, an attractive pillared porch extends into the entrance hall, fitted with an attractive stone tiled flooring opening to a shower room and a dedicated boot room with a range of built in cupboards. The sitting room is beautifully decorated and enjoys many character features including an open fireplace housing a wood burning stove. The wood burner is a Clearview with a back boiler to heat the hot water if desired. Particular mention is made of the recently updated kitchen/dining room, extending to 19' in length and enjoying bi-fold doors opening directly to the garden. The kitchen is fitted with a range of shaker style cupboard and drawer units with solid wood work surfaces. Further accommodation to the ground floor includes a family room/study.

The first floor does not disappoint with a superb family bathroom with a view. The bathroom has been recently updated and enjoys a lovely chequered tiled floor, a bath with shower over and twin wash basins. The principal bedroom extends to an impressive 19' in length and offers a range of built in wardrobes. The wonderful views from the main bedroom extend over adjoining countryside and beyond and there is even a wood burning stove. Two further double bedrooms complete the first floor, with stairs rising to a further attic room offering space for a hobbies room or study, but currently used as a bedroom.

Externally, Malvern Cottage is located in the most idyllic setting on a quiet lane surrounded by mainly period property. To the front is an area of off street parking with a further space to the side. The rear gardens are a particular feature of this wonderful home, offering a formal area laid to lawn with a raised paved terrace ideal for entertaining.
