Stannery Farm Glutton Bridge

Glutton Bridge, Buxton, SK17 0EW

On the market for the first time in 30 years, Stannery Farm is situated in one of the most idyllic and secluded spots in the Peak District. Sitting at the foot of the famous Parkhouse and Chrome Hills and neatly nestled beside a sizeable section of the River Dove, it provides an exceptional opportunity to purchase a stone built former farm house with detached annexe, large gardens and 49.08 acres of undulating grassland. This substantial property offers a total of 9 bedrooms and 5 bathrooms, with The Annexe providing an excellent opportunity for independent family accommodation or to provide additional income as a holiday let, (holiday let may be subject to necessary planning). Stannery Farm is less than 2 miles from the pretty village of Longnor offering cafes, a pub, convenience store, church and primary school and 6 miles from the historic spa town of Buxton. Viewing is most highly recommended to truly appreciate the location and potential on offer.

Situation

The property is situated in a spectacular rural location between Glutton Bridge and Hollinsclough. Sitting at the foot of the famous Parkhouse Hill and Chrome Hill, but also retaining a private secluded location. The property is approximately 6.0 miles from Buxton, 11.1 miles from Leek and 12.7 miles from Bakewell.

Directions
