Victoria Road, Aldeburgh

Unique period cottage a few paces from the sea front.

Council Tax Band: E

DESCRIPTION

A rare opportunity to acquire a delightful period cottage within sight of the sea front and beach. Beautifully presented with excellent kitchen and bathroom, whilst retaining great charm and character of this historic building. With links to Aldeburgh's fishing industry, the property is thought to have had many varied uses through its life time culminating in the current form of this spacious and characterful cottage within a few paces of the sea front, beach and High Street. The accommodation with gas central heating, features a large reception room with dining and snug areas, open fireplace and wealth of exposed timbers. The contrasting modern kitchen is comprehensively fitted with ample storage and appliances, feature brick and cobble wall and mono pitch glass roof flooding this special galley kitchen with light. The inner hallway has a cloakroom and staircase rising to the first floor. There are three well proportion bedrooms, stylish shower room with view toward the Moat Hall and the sea. To the rear is small courtyard garden. Adjacent to Moat Lodge is a GARAGE with electric roller entrance door, power points, water supply.

LOCATION

Aldeburgh is an extremely popular seaside town, renowned for its connections with the composer Benjamin Britten, its sailing on the Rivers Alde and Ore and its heathland golf course. The High Street features an eclectic range of independent shops and brand name boutiques, restaurants and galleries, along with an independent cinema. The town is close to open countryside and nature reserves which are connected through a vast network of public footpaths. Situated within the Suffolk Heritage Coast, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, Aldeburgh is approximately two hours drive from London and the nearest train station is seven miles away at Saxmundham which, with a change at Ipswich, connects to London Liverpool Street.
