North End Avenue, Thorpeness

A unique early twentieth century house situated in a cliff top position with fine sea and coastal views. Thorpeness is a popular seaside resort village with a long shingle beach, the Mere, a man made boating lake over approximately 60 acres, Thorpeness Golf Club and Thorpeness Country Club. Thorpeness is close to the seaside town of Aldeburgh, which benefits from a lively High Street full of both independent and national shops and eateries, supported by an active and engaged local community as well as a thriving tourist trade. The nearby towns of Leiston and Saxmundham prove handy shopping facilities and High Streets, Saxmundham benefits from a railway station on the branch line to Ipswich where a change can be made to the Inter-City line to London Liverpool Street.

DESCRIPTION

Flick & Son are delighted to be able to bring to the market this unique early twentieth century house, situated in a cliff top position with fine sea and coastal views. Accessed via a private road and standing in a generous plot, the property offers spacious accommodation, designed to take full advantage of this extraordinary cliff top coastal location.

‘The Chantry’, is a substantial detached house of rendered and colour washed elevations, below a multiple pitched pan tile covered roofs, standing in a generous plot set well back from the road. A central pathway bordered by wide lawns leads to steps to the entrance of this imposing family home. On the cliff side, a balustraded terrace over looks the sea with multiple entrance doors opening to the two reception rooms and kitchen/breakfast room. The accommodation is designed to take full advantage of this wonderful position. Thought to date from the 1920’s, the property retains many features, with a wealth of exposed wall and ceiling timbers and splendid fireplaces in the two elegant reception rooms. The well-proportioned reception rooms and the kitchen/breakfast room enjoy splendid sea views, with each having doors onto the cliff top terrace. A useful study and W.C complete the ground floor accommodation. An elegant period staircase rises to the first-floor galleried landing, with a decorative timber balustrade and a large leaded, light west facing window. The principal bedroom has fine sea and coastal views, with a dressing room and ensuite bathroom. Three further bedrooms all enjoy sea views, with a family bathroom completing the accommodation.
