DESCRIPTION

Whimbrels has been built using traditional methods and the highest quality materials designed to specifically represent the charm and characteristics of traditional East Suffolk architecture whilst being uniquely different. The property incorporates numerous features to allow local craftsmen to showcase their skills, such as bespoke chimneys, brickwork and fireplaces through to the traditional oak joinery. The property is located at the end of a no through road and via a private drive offering the owner peace and seclusion along with fine views over the marshes to Southwold harbour.

The well proportioned, skilfully designed accommodation is approached via an oak framed entrance porch which leads into a large reception hall with splendid brick fireplace place and double side wood burner. Oak and glass stairs leading to the first floor. The large triple aspect sitting room with French doors open onto a sand stone paved terrace. An imposing fireplace made from reclaimed Suffolk red bricks with large oak beam above is fitted with a wood burning stove. The second reception room overlooks the front garden. The spacious kitchen/dining/living room is fitted with bespoke, handmade and hand painted furniture from Rencraft with Silestone work surfaces. The kitchen furniture includes a traditional larder unit with stone cold shelf and large central island incorporating breakfast bar, two NEFF ovens and two fridges. Neff appliances include induction hob, combination oven, dishwasher and further fridge freezer. Bi-fold doors and French doors on adjoining aspects open to the paved terrace and garden. The utility room includes Rencraft kitchen cabinets and sink unit with plumbing for washing machine and tumble dryer. The house is pre-wired for data points, cabling is located in the utility room services cupboard. A cupboard houses the NIBE air source heat pump systems. There is also an alarm system which is serviced annual by Waveney Security. A large shower room completes the ground floor accommodation.

From the entrance hall an oak and glass staircase rises to the first floor landing. The principal bedroom suite has a high vaulted ceiling, double aspect and built in wardrobes. The ensuite bathroom featuring Italian porcelain tiles with separate rain shower, bath and double hand basins. The guest suite also has a vaulted ceiling and incorporates an ensuite shower room. Bedrooms three and four are both generously proportioned and a spacious family bathroom completes the accommodation.

In addition, the property boasts many traditional features including hand cut roofs with exposed rafter feet, handmade William Blyth pantiles, purpose made exterior triple glazed hardwood windows and doors. Air source under floor heating to ground and first floors, low energy recessed ceiling lights throughout.

Whimbrels along with its two neighbours is accessed via a private drive with conservation granite kerbs and bound stone surface. The property stands in a particularly generous plot with established gardens. Wrought iron gates open to the private driveway which is permeable resin bound stone with solid granite set edges and leads to the larch clad detached double garage with electronically operated up and over timber doors and adjacent log store. The gardens are a real delight with large lawned areas that wrap around the property with numerous mature and newly planted specimen trees. The well-stocked borders have been planted as a traditional 'English cottage garden' incorporating handmade brick paths, handmade gates and generous Indian sandstone terraces perfect for alfresco dining.
