Council Tax Band: G

DESCRIPTION

An elegant Victorian former vicarage standing in grounds exceeding two acres and the northern edge of the hamlet of Redisham about four miles south of the popular and well served market town of Beccles and about 9 miles north west of the renowned coastal town of Southwold and the Suffolk Heritage Coast, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. A sweeping driveway leads up to the handsome property of great charm and character with Flemish bond brick elevations below multiple pitched and hipped shallow roofs. The accommodation features well proportioned rooms, the principal rooms have high ceilings with light flooding through large south facing sash windows and enjoying fine views over the gardens. The spacious kitchen and breakfast room with large adjacent utility room are perfect for day to day living and open onto a delightful courtyard ideal for alfresco dining. The galleried landing leads to five well proportioned bedrooms enjoying views over the mature grounds and surrounding countryside. Standing on the northern boundary, a timber stable block of three loose boxes and a store. A wrought hand gated leads through screening beech hedgerow to the pool and summer house.
