DESCRIPTION

An elegant and well appointed bay fronted Victorian town house located within the Conservation Area of this extremely popular and convenient location, just a short stroll from the seafront and town centre. The well presented accommodation with double glazing and gas central heating retains the charm and character of the original building having impressive fireplace in the double reception room, picture rails, panel doors and staircase. A storm porch with colour glazed entrance door leads to the entrance hall an elegant staircase rises to the galleried landing. A spacious double reception room has a fireplace and bay window overlooking Stradbroke Road. The large kitchen/dining room has been extended creating an additional seating/dining area with casement doors opening to a courtyard garden with pedestrian access to the rear. The galleried landing leads to the three bedrooms, the principal bedroom being of a particularly generous proportion with glimpse of the sea from the bay window.
