DESCRIPTION

Situated on the corner of Pier Avenue, Beech House is a well planned and spacious detached family home. The property boasts predominantly large windows and open plan accommodation, creating a welcoming and comfortable family home equally suited as a permanent or second home. Set well back from the road behind high beech hedges, the garden wraps around front to rear, with a wide paved and secluded seating area tucked away from the coastal breeze which is perfect for alfresco dining. Located above, a 'sky bridge' links the property via a large south facing first floor balcony, to a gated access onto Marlborough Road. The front of the property can be accessed via a shared private road leading to a driveway providing off road parking. Equipped with double glazing and gas central heating, the accommodation comprises:
