Blackheath, Wenhaston

Situated on the heath at the edge of the popular village of Wenhaston, is this delightful, detached cottage style home. Wenhaston lies about five miles inland from Suffolk's Heritage Coast, Southwold and Walberswick, and is well served by a variety of local amenities including public house; village hall and shop; parish church and primary school. Wenhaston is also situated four miles from the popular market town of Halesworth, served by a good variety of shops; doctors surgery; library; and railway station, offering a service via Ipswich to London Liverpool Street. The surrounding coastline and countryside is a Designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, renowned for its leisure pursuits including birdwatching and the excellent golf clubs of Southwold, Thorpeness, Aldeburgh and Halesworth.

DESCRIPTION

Set within Blackheath, a small common land with a small cluster of individual homes, is this three-bedroom detached cottage style home. Accessed via unmade tracks, is a tranquil setting at the edge of Wenhaston, approximately mid-way between the popular market town of Halesworth and the renowned seaside resort of Southwold, allowing access to all the East Suffolk Heritage Coast has to offer. Gorse Cottage dated from 2010 having been built by the present owner, offers spacious and well-planned accommodation, with a large wrap around Garden/Living Room being a particular feature. Set behind hedgerow, a block paved driveway leads via wrought gates to a large garage and continues to the rear of the property. Through an archway is a delightful and secluded courtyard garden, with store attached to the garage. The accommodation, with oil fired central heating, under floor heating to the Garden Room, and double glazing throughout comprises;
