DESCRIPTION

Introducing this modern cottage style property situated within the popular coastal village of Westleton. Located just off the village green, this charming semi-detached home of Flemish bond brick elevations below a covered pitched and hipped roof, boasts three bedrooms, a single garage, off road parking, as well as front and rear gardens. Set back from the road behind a low brick wall, the pathway leads to a lattice storm porch and the front entrance door. A paved passage leads along the side of the property past a timber store to the walled, hard landscaped rear garden, planted with a wealth of flowering shrubs and climbers, all enjoying a westerly aspect, ideal for alfresco dining. Access via Clematis Close leads to the driveway and garage. The garage measures 5.30m x 2.75m, with an up and over entrance door, power points and lighting, and access via a hand gate to the rear garden.
