The Lea, Walberswick

A delightful semi detached cottage with a large south facing garden and off road parking, located on a peaceful driveway a few paces from the village green. Walberswick stands on the south bank of the River Blyth, just across the water from Southwold. A ferry operates from Southwold in the summer, cutting short a seven mile journey by road. Formerly a prosperous fishing village, nearly half of the houses in Walberswick today are holiday homes. The village has a thriving artistic community with regular exhibitions, two excellent village pubs, tea rooms and village hall.
