DESCRIPTION

This individual detached chalet bungalow occupies a superb elevated position with fine views across Buss Creek towards the much-loved coastal town of Southwold. Approached along a private road, the property is set behind secure electric gates and enjoys a high degree of privacy. A driveway, carport and garage with electric door, together with a workshop and store, provide ample parking and practical space.

The gardens are a particular feature of the property, beautifully tended and thoughtfully laid out. A raised terrace with summer house offers an ideal vantage point to take in the outstanding views over the creek to Southwold, while a productive vegetable garden with potting shed and traditional smoke house adds to the charm and character.

Inside, the accommodation benefits from gas central heating and double glazing throughout. A rear entrance leads into a utility area and through to a fitted kitchen and dining room, with French doors opening directly onto the terrace to make the most of the setting. The large hallway provides access to a ground floor bedroom, family bathroom and separate WC. The spacious living room is designed to capture the far-reaching views, creating a light and welcoming space. On the first floor, the landing leads to two further bedrooms, including the main bedroom with ensuite bathroom. Both bedrooms enjoy fine views over the creek to Southwold.

The location is as appealing as the property itself. Southwold, just a short walk away, is set on the East Suffolk Heritage Coast, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The town is renowned for its beach, pier and greens, and offers an excellent range of shops, golf and sailing clubs, as well as its unique small cinema. The neighbouring village of Reydon provides everyday amenities including two general stores, a well-regarded hotel and public house, and a bowls club. The wider area is celebrated for its glorious coastline and unspoilt countryside, offering a wonderful environment in which to live.
