DESCRIPTION

A Grade II Listed Georgian house of exceptional style and quality. Having undergone a full programme of renovation completed by the current owners this stunning family home has retained the charm and character of the original Georgian house with its high ceilings, large sash windows and fireplaces. An elegant reception hall leads to two well-proportioned reception rooms which overlook a formal garden. To the rear is a utility room, cloakroom and access to the cellar. The attached timber and stone buildings, the former forge, have been converted to create additional accommodation forming a splendid kitchen, garden sitting room with bi-fold doors, mezzanine level and ground floor bedroom suite. There are four further generously proportioned bedrooms, two with en-suites and a sumptuous family bathroom. Standing in secluded gardens bordering the river Fromus with a wealth of mature trees, shrubs, lawns and wide sandstone terrace adjacent to the French doors of the kitchen and bi-fold doors of the garden sitting room. To the rear is a long shingle drive and parking area.

LOCATION

Situated in a secluded location yet only a short stroll of the Town centre. The market town of Saxmundham lies just off the A12 with a good range of traditional shops in its High Street centre, with further amenities within the town including both primary and free schools, library, doctors and dentist's surgeries, Waitrose and Tesco supermarkets. The local railway station which lies just west of the town centre, gives hourly services to Ipswich, which has regular services to London Liverpool St.
