Stone Common, Blaxhall

An individual detached cottage overlooking neighbouring countryside. The village of Blaxhall lies about five miles east of the A12 Great Yarmouth to London road and about one mile from the internationally famous Snape Maltings Concert Hall with quayside café and shops. The village benefits from the lovely traditional Ship Inn public house, made famous for its folk singing. Shopping facilities are available at the pretty riverside town of Woodbridge, approximately five miles, and the market town of Saxmundham, just over four miles. The Suffolk Coast can be found at Aldeburgh, about eight miles away, and for those with leisure interests in mind the area abounds with opportunities including first class golf courses at both Aldeburgh and Woodbridge, whilst for sailors the nearby river Alde is to be found at Orford. There are lovely walks to be enjoyed at Blaxhall Common, nearby Tunstall Forest and Iken Cliffs and cycle routes from this area along the coast to Orford. The nearest railway stations are at Campsea Ashe and Saxmundham, both giving connecting services via Ipswich to London Liverpool Street.

DESCRIPTION

Flick & Son are delighted to offer this unique detached cottage standing in this rural location in the Hamlet of Stone Common, on the western edge of the village of Blaxhall. This charming detached cottage offers a perfect blend of traditional character and modern comfort. Set in a peaceful location, the property enjoys private gardens with a range of stores and a summer house, while parking and a garage ensure convenience. Right of way to the rear of the garden offers an additional hard standing parking space. Inside, the cosy sitting room features a stunning inglenook fireplace and a wealth of exposed beams, adding warmth and a touch of rustic charm. The smart kitchen is well-equipped and leads to a bright breakfast room, ideal for casual dining. A utility room and cloakroom offer additional practical space. The home offers both ground and first-floor bedrooms, ensuring ample accommodation for family or guests. With its inviting atmosphere and well-thought-out layout, this cottage is an ideal retreat.
