DESCRIPTION

Set well back from the road on a remarkably generous plot of around a third of an acre, this distinctive 1930s attached home offers a rare combination of character, space, and convenience — all within walking distance of the town centre and railway station.

A sweeping horseshoe driveway with a central lawn, mature conifers, and hedgerow provides an impressive approach, ample off-road parking, and access to a single garage.

Inside, the property's welcoming entrance hall features a side door opening to a private courtyard area, which also allows access to the rear of the garage and garden. An elegant staircase rises to the first floor, complemented by a half landing front-facing window and useful under-stairs storage. A cloakroom is also conveniently positioned off the hallway.

The home offers two spacious reception rooms, both enjoying views of the delightful rear garden. The principal reception features a stone fireplace with gas fire and wide patio doors opening directly onto the garden, while a connecting doorway leads to the second reception room, with windows to the rear and side. An archway opens into the kitchen, which overlooks the front garden. Adjacent is a practical lobby area housing the gas and heating boiler, water softener, and a stable door providing side access.

Upstairs, a galleried landing leads to three well-proportioned bedrooms, all positioned at the rear to capture beautiful views over the gardens. Two of the bedrooms include fitted wardrobes. The spacious family bathroom is fitted with a full suite including a bath, separate shower cubicle, and hand basin, complemented by tiled walls and flooring, and a large front-facing window. A separate WC and an eaves recess housing the hot water cylinder and solar panel equipment complete the first floor.

The rear garden is a true highlight — a beautifully maintained and private space framed by mature hedges and pathways. Expansive lawns are anchored by a graceful central willow tree, creating a tranquil and picturesque setting perfect for relaxation or outdoor entertaining.

This unique property combines period charm with substantial grounds and an enviable location offering wonderful potential to renovate and extend - an ideal choice for those seeking a home of character and space close to town amenities and transport links.
