Heath View, Westleton

A spacious semi-detached family home, beautifully positioned overlooking the heath on the edge of one of the Heritage Coast's most sought-after villages. The land directly opposite the house is owned by the RSPB, creating a haven for wildlife with swifts nesting in the roof tiles and nightingales singing from the nearby trees. A footpath just across the road offers direct access to scenic walks leading to Dunwich, Minsmere, Southwold, and Aldeburgh.

DESCRIPTION

Flick & Son are pleased to offer this spacious semi detached family house situated overlooking the heath at the edge of this most popular of Heritage Coast villages. The property features oil fired central heating and well planned accommodation which includes an entrance hall, separate sitting and dining rooms, the sitting having an open fireplace. Overlooking the rear garden is the kitchen/breakfast room, large rear hall, utility room and cloakroom. On the first floor the property has four good sized bedrooms, bathroom and separate W.C. The bedrooms to the front enjoy views over heath and woodland. Outside the property has generously proportioned front and rear gardens and a driveway providing off road parking.

LOCATION

The land opposite the house belongs to the RSPB. Swifts nest in the roof tiles and nightingales in the trees opposite. The footpath across the road is the start of walks to Dunwich, Minsmere, Southwold and Aldeburgh. The ever popular village of Westleton lies about six miles northeast of the market town of Saxmundham, yet only just over two miles east of the main A12 Great Yarmouth to London road and set around a traditional village green with restaurants, public houses, motor vehicle garage and a thriving village store and post office.
