Situation: Booker Common has a rich rural history dating back to the 1700's and is a popular location for dog walkers and those who wish to escape the hustle and bustle of everyday life. Just over 4 miles away in the opposite direction is the Thames riverside town of Marlow, with its abundance of boutique shopping, local cafes, bars and restaurants. There are many favoured schools in the area and convenient commuter links with the M40 being just a short drive away giving access to the M25 and London Heathrow Airport beyond.
