Number 67 is beautifully presented semi detached home, with a delightful mix of traditional, period features and modern fixtures and fittings that appeal to a range of potential buyers. There is an impressive open plan living space, with the lounge, family room and dining kitchen extension all open on the ground floor, three large bedrooms on the first and second floor, with a master en suite and modern family bathroom. The gardens are all laid with low-maintenance in mind, with ample off road parking to the front, and early viewing is essential to appreciate the gorgeous interior and convenient location of this fantastic family home.

In more detail, the internal accommodation extends to an entrance vestibule, an inner hallway with under stairs storage, a downstairs WC, a utility room with a door leading out to the side, a bay-windowed lounge to the front with a feature fireplace and bi-fold doors opening into a family room, which is also open into the dining kitchen, which has ample wall and base units, Velux windows and French doors out to the garden. On the first floor there are two large double bedrooms, including one with a bay-window to the front, and a modern family bathroom suite, with a shower over the bath. The second floor has a landing with a Velux window that could be used as a study area and a large master bedroom, with Velux windows that look out over the town and out to sea, and a luxury en suite shower room.

Externally the front garden area is mainly laid with monoblock paving to allow off road parking. There is gated access at the side, which leads round to a fully enclosed and walled rear garden, with decorative aggregate, paved patio and seating areas and a garden shed.

The property is located within close proximity to the bustling town centre of Prestwick, which provides a plethora of boutique shops, bars and restaurants. In addition, the seafront/promenade is close by and there are excellent road and rail links to Glasgow and surrounding areas.
