Country Holmes offers to market this stunning four/five bedroom detached property in the heart of Simmondley. A detached family house enjoying a large corner plot on this child friendly cul-de-sac, in this popular development. The present owners have spared no expense in updating this well-presented property both inside and out. Four/five double bedrooms, master with newly fitted en-suite shower room, newly fitted main bathroom, with stunning free standing slipper bath, lounge with double log burner, separate dining room and garden office/room. Recently extended and fitted kitchen, utility room leading into a very useful boot/storage room and onto a fifth bedroom/study/snug (formerly the garage).
