LONG REACH

A beautifully presented character residence in village setting comprising cloakroom/WC, breakfast kitchen, utility room, large open plan sitting room/dining room, three/four bedrooms, wonderful bathroom, double garage, parking, excellent outdoor garden studio and stunning garden with outstanding countryside views.

Ground Floor

A beautifully presented character residence in a most sought-after village location.

Offered for sale with no upward chain, the property comprises a rear hall / utility which has useful storage space and a door leading to a downstairs cloakroom. Another door provides access to a breakfast kitchen which has lovely character features including a double Belfast style sink unit, space for a kitchen / dining table, windows to three elevations affording a good degree of natural light and a door to an inner lobby.

The inner lobby has stairs rising to the first floor and two steps to a stunning sitting room with characterful beams, a wood burning stove, a further feature brick fireplace, windows to the front and rear in addition to a door which opens out to the front of the property.

First Floor

To the first floor, there are two double bedrooms, one with windows to the front and rear and one to the rear elevation, yet without doubt, one of the main selling features of the property is the wonderful and rather large bathroom with a freestanding bath, a separate walk in shower, wc and his and hers sinks.

From the first floor landing, two separate staircases each lead to an additional room. One is the master suite which is of an excellent size and certainly lends itself to create an en-suite and dressing area whilst the room located off the other staircase could be used as either an occasional bedroom, teenage sitting room or home office. From this delightful room, a window provides outstanding countryside views.

Seller Insight

“Tucked away in a secluded drive, this enchanting home offers the perfect blend of privacy, charm, and village life. For nearly nine years, the current owners have cherished the peacefulness and unique character of this property, drawn initially by its prime location, sense of seclusion, and the captivating countryside views that unfold beyond the garden's edge.

This home is a wonderful contradiction—full of character with its traditional, cottage-style architecture, yet thoughtfully modernised to provide practical, comfortable living spaces. From the moment you arrive, you are met with the undeniable charm of a home that has been a peaceful sanctuary, while also being perfectly positioned for access to Banbury, the motorway, and surrounding towns like Warwick, Leamington Spa, and Bicester. For those with active lives or international commitments, this home offers seamless connectivity without compromising its serene village setting.

Step inside and you'll discover a house that truly embraces the beauty of its natural surroundings. The garden room, a much-loved addition, is the heart of the home—a place to pause, unwind, and take in the uninterrupted views of the fields beyond. Whether you're watching kites circling overhead, squirrels playfully darting among the trees, or simply observing the changing seasons, this space offers a connection to nature that is both calming and endlessly captivating.

Throughout the home, natural light pours in, particularly upstairs where sunlight dances across the rooms all day long. The study, or fourth bedroom, is another favourite vantage point, offering yet more beautiful views and a tranquil backdrop for both work and relaxation.

The kitchen and dining areas have become treasured spots for the owners, where morning coffees and quiet lunches are shared in the company of the local birdlife. The modernised garden is an extension of this lifestyle, designed to complement the sweeping views and create a seamless flow from indoors to outdoors. It's here that countless garden parties and gatherings with family and neighbours have taken place—a true reflection of the close-knit, welcoming community that thrives in this part of the village. In fact, the local jetty area is known for its vibrant social spirit, with regular garden parties and friendly get-togethers forming part of everyday life.

For the owners, this home has also provided the perfect base for their active lifestyle. As keen triathletes, the surrounding countryside has offered excellent cycling and running routes, while the village cricket ground has provided a more leisurely way to connect with the community.

*As they prepare to pass this home to new custodians, the owners know there is so much they will miss. Most of all, they will miss the simple joy of sitting in the garden room—whether working quietly, watching the gentle rhythm of nature, or sharing a glass of wine as the sun sets. It is a peaceful retreat that has brought them immeasurable happiness, and they leave knowing it will bring the same to its next fortunate owners.”

Outside

The property also benefits from having a double garage with two up and over doors and a door opening out to the rear garden which has an attractive lawn, mature trees and steps leads down to a superb patio which backs onto acres of fields whilst beyond, there are beautiful views to be seen of the rolling countryside.

Due to the configuration of the property, the only access to the rear garden is through the garage, yet affords privacy, safety and security.

The current owners have also erected a wonderful outdoor garden studio which has broadband, heating and full height windows which provide stunning countryside views currently used as an outdoor living room.

This stunning residence must be viewed to be appreciated.
