Seller Insight

“Set in one of Banbury's most desirable locations, this distinguished family residence combines privacy, space, and elegance in a way few homes can. Owned by the same family since the 1960s and cherished by the current owners since 2011, it occupies one of the largest plots within the town — a secluded haven set well back from the road, elevated to offer a commanding yet peaceful presence. Mature trees and landscaped gardens create a sense of calm and seclusion from the moment you arrive, while the sweeping driveway provides an impressive approach and generous parking for residents and guests alike.

The house was originally chosen for its exceptional location, expansive grounds, and adaptability — qualities that continue to make it an outstanding family home. Offering the perfect blend of town convenience and countryside charm, it sits just a short walk from Banbury's town centre, excellent schools, and local amenities, yet is only moments away from the open beauty of the Cotswolds. It's a home that allows you to enjoy the best of both worlds: the energy of town life and the tranquillity of nature.

Inside, the property has been thoughtfully designed to balance open plan living with defined, intimate spaces that provide privacy and comfort. Large, light-filled rooms flow naturally into one another, creating an ideal setting for both family life and entertaining. The contemporary kitchen, complete with a sleek central island, connects seamlessly with the dining and living areas, while the annex offers flexibility — equally suited to multi-generational living, guest accommodation, or a potential Airbnb retreat.

The home's natural light is one of its defining features. Morning sun streams into the southeast-facing garden and patio, bathing the rear of the house in warmth and light. As the day moves on, the home remains cool and sheltered, while the evening sun illuminates the front, especially the office — a tranquil spot for working or relaxing as the day winds down. The soft interplay of light throughout the day enhances the home's peaceful atmosphere and highlights its refined simplicity.

The outdoor spaces are equally captivating. The expansive lawn, bordered by mature shrubs and soft lighting, creates an inviting backdrop for both quiet reflection and lively gatherings. It's an entertainer's paradise — a garden that welcomes morning coffees, summer celebrations, and late evenings with friends under the stars. The property's generous proportions continue outside with a large private driveway, ensuring both convenience and impressive curb appeal.

Recently updated with a refitted downstairs cloakroom and a stylish en-suite in the principal bedroom, as well as full redecoration throughout the main house and annex, the home is presented in excellent condition and ready for its next chapter. Its clean, contemporary interiors offer a timeless canvas for the new owners to personalise and develop further, making the most of its immense potential.

Above all, this is a home built for living well — a place where space, privacy, and comfort converge. The owners describe countless happy memories here: family gatherings, childhood laughter, and evenings spent entertaining loved ones. As they prepare to move on, they will miss the generous gardens, the sunlit spaces, and the welcoming atmosphere that has made this such a happy and fulfilling family home.*

First Floor

The feature bedroom is of high quality with built in wardrobes, a window overlooking the garden and access to a stunning refitted en-suite which has underfloor heating, a Jacuzzi bath and separate shower cubical.

The guest bedroom has a window to the front and an en-suite shower room.

There is another large double bedroom which has a vanity basin and a window to the rear, in addition to two further bedrooms, one a double and the other a good sized single.

Completing the accommodation on the first floor are a separate bathroom and shower room both with toilet and washing facilities.

Annexe

Another wonderful benefit of this home is the fully self-contained annexe.

Having its own separate side entrance, it is ideal for a member of the family to live close by whilst enjoying their own space.

The annexe has its own kitchen, sitting room, conservatory and bathroom.

There is also potential to incorporate the annexe into the main house with minimum construction and reconfigure the ground floor accommodation to provide even more living space.

Outside

The gardens are stunning, mainly laid to lawn with mature trees, patio area, and pedestrian access at both sides of the property, with potential for vehicular access to rear at one side. Shrubberies to each side and to the rear of the lawn with concealed lighting. Large, fully insulated and double glazed workshop or garden office, with full lighting and power.

To the front, there is a tarmac drive surrounded by shrubs and spacious border area, in addition to a lawn area. Timber palisade fencing to the front, with secure double gates to the driveway. Also a garage and parking for around eight cars.

An excellent large family home which must be viewed.
