FINE & COUNTRY

158 OXFORD ROAD

A deceptively spacious detached residence with bedrooms on both the ground and first floors that has been sympathetically extended to provide exceptional accommodation. Comprising porch, entrance hall, kitchen, utility area, excellent sitting room, dining area, five bedrooms, four bath/shower rooms, superb garden, single garage and off-road parking for around six cars.

Must be seen.

Ground Floor

Upon entering, the porch has a door to the spacious hall which has a wide staircase to the first floor and a window to the front.

The kitchen has access to a utility area which could be opened up to create a larger kitchen.

The excellent sitting room is very large and has a wood burning stove and a window to the front whilst the wonderful dining area has ample space for a table to seat around fourteen guests and French doors to the rear.

There are two bedrooms on the ground floor one of which has an ensuite with wetroom shower and are also serviced by the family bathroom which has a corner bath and separate shower cubical.

Seller Insight

“Tucked away behind lush greenery and mature trees, this beautiful home offers a rare combination of privacy, charm, and practicality — all within easy reach of town life. Owned and lovingly maintained by Andrew and Margaret since 2011, the property exudes a sense of quiet confidence, its handsome façade and well-balanced proportions hinting at the care and thought that have gone into every detail of its design and adaptation.

Set back from the road and bordered by flourishing hedges and bushes, the house feels delightfully secluded. The rear of the garden adjoins well-tended allotments, offering both an attractive outlook and a sense of openness, while a bridleway to the north-west provides direct access to the historic Roman lane known as Salt Way — perfect for tranquil countryside walks right from the doorstep.

Inside, the home blends comfort and sophistication with impressive versatility. A spacious entrance hall welcomes guests with an immediate sense of warmth — an elegant yet practical space that Andrew and Margaret have enjoyed transforming into a light-filled library and reading area. The heart of the home is the generous living and dining area, which flows seamlessly into a well-proportioned kitchen and utility space. Here, large windows on multiple sides allow natural light to pour in, creating a bright, airy atmosphere that evolves beautifully throughout the day.

The wood-burning stove lends the living room a cosy ambiance in the winter months, while in summer the room opens to serene garden views, making it the perfect place to unwind. The layout also caters effortlessly to entertaining, with ample space for family gatherings and dinner parties that spill into the garden on warm evenings. Practicality has been thoughtfully integrated into the home's design. The ground-floor bedroom with its en suite wet room was created with accessibility in mind, while upstairs, three further bedrooms and two bathrooms — including a spacious en suite — provide comfort and privacy for family and guests alike. The wide, straight staircase, upgraded central heating controlled by a Hive system, and high-spec rewiring and plumbing throughout all reflect a home that is both modern and enduring.

Outside, the gardens are a true delight. From the impressive cedar tree marking the entrance to the weeping willow that graces the eastern lawn, the grounds offer beauty in every season. Spring brings clouds of apple blossom from the mature fruit tree at the rear, while the well-established shrubs and borders provide colour, fragrance, and a haven for birds. There is always a shaded spot to sit with a book or a sunny corner for morning coffee — a garden designed for quiet enjoyment as much as for lively family gatherings.

The location combines seclusion with convenience: excellent transport links, a nearby superstore, schools, and community amenities are all within walking distance. The friendly neighbours and the calm of the adjoining allotments create a setting that feels welcoming yet private — a rare balance of town and country living.

For Andrew and Margaret, this home has been a cherished haven — warm in winter, cool in summer, and perfectly suited to their lifestyle. It has provided comfort for family, space for entertaining, and the gentle rhythm of a garden that changes with the seasons. As they prepare to leave, they will miss most the home's cosiness, its practicality, and the peace of its garden — a place that has offered them not just shelter, but a deeply rewarding way of life.*

First Floor

To the first floor, the landing has a useful large walk in airing cupboard and loft above.

The feature bedroom is of a good size and has a window to the rear which provides beautiful views over the garden and beyond, and access to the en suite shower room with separate large bath and shower cubicle.

There are two further bedrooms, one is a double with large velux windows to the rear providing an excellent aspect and a good sized single bedroom with a window to the front.

Both bedrooms are serviced by the shower room with tiling and large vanity unit.

All bedrooms have access to eves storage providing easily accessible useful storage space.

Outside –

The extra long single garage has power, light and a door to the garden with a workshop area to the rear and there is parking to the front for around six cars surrounded with shrubs and attractive mature trees.

The very private rear garden is superb and is mainly laid to lawn with mature trees, a large sun terrace and timber shed, with recently close-boarded fence to all sides.

Pedestrian access around both sides of the property with secure gates, and outside lighting all round.

A flexible home which must be viewed.

LOCATION

Oxford Road is situated just a short drive from the centre of Banbury and is conveniently located for the M40 which provides easy access to Birmingham, Oxford, Bicester and London, whilst the local train network provides a commute to Marylebone in under an hour. The property is situation close to a large supermarket, local hospital and close to the town centre. A nearby public bridleway offers easy access to a local park, and on out to open fields and countryside..

“Having just purchased my new home through Fine & Country I cannot recommend them highly enough. Terry went above and beyond in ensuring as smooth a transaction as possible. Never once did I have a problem in contacting him, even on days off he still took my calls showing what a dedicated agent he is. I love my new home too much to ever consider selling it but I know who I would use if I was ever considering moving again!! Thanks to Fine & Country, especially Terry, I am now living in my dream home!”
