Marylebone High Street, W1U

A two bedroom, potential two bathroom luxury apartment located on Marylebone High Street in a smart period building with a passenger lift. The professionally designed interior delivers a turn key home in prime central London.

From floor to ceiling this property has been renovated with the latest material including electricity and water piping and Italian flooring in the kitchen and bathroom.

The main bedroom previously had an en suite which is currently used as walk in storage however the plumbing connections remain so could be reinstated. The property has been beautifully and professionally designed to create an exquisite and unique apartment on one of London's most popular High Streets.

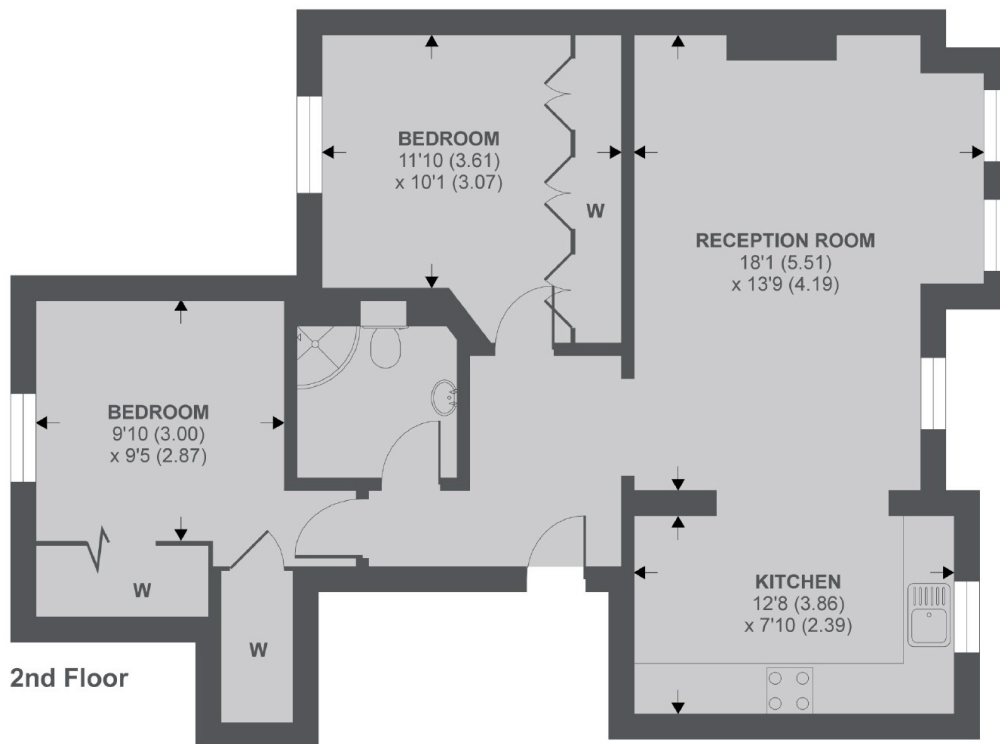

The property has french furnishing throughout the flat, Italian wallpapering, a fully-fitted kitchen with integrated appliances, underfloor heating in the bathroom, Italian shower equipment, silk carpet in the bedrooms and the toilet has been imported from Japan.
