Introduction

Sitting in the historic and picturesque village of Clun, 1 Clunside Court offers an exceptional opportunity to acquire a charming two-bedroom end-terraced home. With stunning countryside views and a sought-after High Street location, this delightful property combines modern comforts with traditional character.

Property Description

As you enter the property through the front door, you are greeted by a welcoming hallway with stairs ahead of you leading to the first floor. To your right, there is a lovely kitchen with a range of base and wall units and a black slate tiled floor. Having a built in electric oven, hob, extractor and fridge/freezer with space for a washing machine, the kitchen is semi-open plan to the spacious reception / dining room which benefits from wood laminate floor and full width windows overlooking the rear garden. There is a door leading back into the entrance hallway where there is also an under stairs cloakroom.

To the first floor, the spacious master bedroom is to the rear of the property with the most amazing southerly views to the landscape and hills beyond. The second bedroom is to the front of the house, both rooms share access to the house shower room with suite in white comprising a double sized shower enclosure, pedestal wash hand basin and W.C.

Outside

The rear garden is largely laid to lawn, enclosed with timber fencing and has a small patio and timber shed. There is a rear gate for access to the parking behind the property which can accommodate two vehicles. The property also has a small roadside front garden.

Location

The property sits in the small town of Clun surrounded by beautiful Shropshire countryside. Clun is a desirable area and well serviced, with facilities in the town including small shops, public houses, Doctor's surgery, church, primary school. Many think of Clun as a village, but it has the distinction of being granted a very early town charter in the 14th century. It was also mentioned in the Domesday Book and there is archaeological evidence of habitation back as far as 5000 years ago with Neolithic and Bronze Age tools on display in the town's museum. Overlooking the town is the ruined Borderland castle, perched high on two ice age mounds with the River Clun running past it, makes a scenic picnic spot.

Clun is located in the Shropshire's National Landscapes (formerly Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty) and draws many visitors to the town to enjoy its hospitality, wonderful walking and scenery. The town has local shops, public houses, cafes, essential services and a primary school. More extensive shopping and amenities are available in Knighton, Bishops Castle, Craven Arms and Ludlow. Train stations on the Heart of Wales train line which links the west coast of Wales, mid Wales and English mainlines are located at Knighton, Bucknell, Hopton Heath and Craven Arms.
