Introduction

Tucked away in a quiet residential cul-de-sac, this beautifully presented four-bedroom home offers stylish, open-plan living with a stunning garden room extension, generous outdoor space, and a private driveway with garage. Finished to a high standard throughout, the property combines contemporary comfort with practical features, all within easy reach of Ludlow's historic town centre and local amenities.

Property Description

Step through the front porch into a welcoming hallway, complete with handy storage beneath the stairs. The living room is a light and comfortable space, featuring a charming fireplace with an inset wood-burning stove. The ground floor layout flows seamlessly into the dining area and kitchen, creating a practical and sociable living environment.

At the heart of the home is the sleek, contemporary kitchen, bright, airy, and beautifully finished. Soft grey cabinetry is perfectly complemented by crisp white worktops and warm oak accents, creating a calm, stylish, and inviting space. A large open serving hatch and breakfast bar connect the kitchen to the living area, allowing natural light from the rear windows to fill the room. Modern integrated appliances, including a built-in oven stack and induction hob, ensure a streamlined look, while thoughtful details such as open shelving, wine storage, and a deep stainless-steel sink with a pull-down tap combine practicality with personality.

The kitchen provides direct access to the utility room, WC, and the stunning garden room, a true highlight of the home. This beautifully designed space offers a contemporary open-plan layout that seamlessly blends indoor and outdoor living. Flooded with natural light from a large skylight and full-width bi-fold doors, the garden room is perfect for relaxing, entertaining, or enjoying views of the garden throughout the year. It features sleek tiled flooring, electric underfloor heating, and a modern neutral palette that enhances the bright, airy atmosphere.

A spacious lounge area flows effortlessly into a breakfast bar and open kitchen hatch, while an adjacent dining space completes this versatile and inviting ground floor.

Upstairs, you'll find four bedrooms arranged around a central landing, including a spacious main bedroom with en suite, plus a modern family bathroom that's been recently refurbished.

Outside

The property is set back behind a wide tarmac driveway offering ample off-road parking. The front garden is open and laid to lawn with well-kept borders and pathways that adds to the style and kerb appeal.

The front door is accessed directly from the driveway, alongside a single garage with an electrically operated door. Inside the garage, you'll find a concrete floor, power and lighting, and the wall-mounted Worcester gas boiler, which serves the central heating and hot water systems.

To the rear, the garden is fully enclosed with high panel fencing for privacy. A paved patio area is perfect for outdoor dining, a well-maintained lawn and pathways lead through the garden. Established planting, deep borders, and mature shrubs create a lush, inviting feel, complemented by a useful garden shed for storage.

Location

The house sits on a quiet, friendly cul-de-sac of similar properties with easy access to Ludlow town centre. The historic centre is under a mile away, where you'll find an eclectic mix of independent shops, cafés, restaurants, and cultural attractions. Local day-to-day facilities including a supermarket, primary school, and petrol station are within very close reach.

For commuters, Ludlow railway station is approximately 1km away, linking the town to the Welsh Marches Line. Surrounded by the rolling Shropshire countryside, the location also offers excellent walking and cycling opportunities while retaining excellent connectivity to major towns such as Shrewsbury and Hereford.
