Glazed double doors open into a striking dual aspect sitting room, featuring a stone fireplace with log burner, wooden flooring, patio doors to the garden, and space for formal dining. The kitchen is the heart of the home, filled with natural light and is well appointed with granite worktops, an induction hob, integrated oven and microwave, dishwasher, and extensive storage. A dining area sits beside glazed doors opening to a side terrace, creating a perfect spot for relaxed meals. A separate utility room provides space for laundry appliances, additional storage, and internal access to the garage, which includes loft storage and a rear garden door. There is a light filled family room with views over the rear garden. The ground floor also includes three double bedrooms, two with front aspect and one with French doors to the garden. The principal suite includes fitted wardrobes and a generous ensuite bathroom with corner shower, while a modern family bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms. This floor is completed with a cloakroom, coat cupboard, and generous under stairs storage. Upstairs, a bright landing leads to three further bedrooms, including another large double with ensuite shower room and lovely countryside views. Two further doubles share a stylish shower room, and an additional room which currently serves as a home office, fitted with a desk and shelving and overlooking open fields. The garden has been thoughtfully landscaped with a lawn, raised patio, ornamental pond, and greenhouse. A private driveway provides parking in front of the garage, all set within a peaceful and established setting in one of Buckinghamshire's most desirable villages.
