3 Bedroom Cottage located in Old Costessey

Description

This pretty double fronted cottage stands proud in this well know thriving part of Old Costessey. Offering entrance hall, sitting room, playroom/study/dining room. kitchen to the ground floor. A landing with views, two double bedrooms and a separate dressing/bedroom along with the family bathroom. The rear garden is really where this special unique home comes into a world of its own and gives you one of the best relaxing spaces we have seen for sometime to take time to relax. The first section is straight out of the door from the kitchen to a very private courtyard with a detached outside laundry room. There is a barn workshop 15'5 x 12'1 with further store area. Access through here to what almost seems like another world. What lies beyond is both pretty and practical. You are greeted with a raised terrace where you can admire the garden, watch the children play and relax with the sound of the water into the raised fish pond. Lawned with borders, mature planting with vegetable area fenced. Good sized further sun terrace to the rear. Overall a stunning garden which you can enjoy as the sunny days are coming. You must make time to come and see this special family home.
