1 Bedroom Apartment located in Norwich

Welcome to the prestigious Ivory Building of the iconic Fellowes Plain development, this stunning first-floor apartment on Benjamin Gooch Way offers a unique blend of modern living and historical charm. Converted in 2013, this property is just a stone's throw from the vibrant city centre of Norwich.

As you enter the grand entrance hall, you are greeted by a sweeping period staircase that sets a welcoming tone for the entire residence. The building features convenient mailboxes and a modern lobby to the rear, ensuring ease of access for residents. Ascend to the first floor, where this delightful apartment awaits, boasting a lovely position that overlooks the charming period buildings of the area.

Upon entering the apartment, you will immediately feel at home. The private hall leads you into an impressive open-plan sitting room, characterised by high ceilings and a large period window that floods the space with natural light. The seamless connection to the kitchen/diner makes it an ideal setting for entertaining guests or enjoying quiet evenings in.

The bedroom is equally inviting, featuring double aspect windows that enhance the airy feel of the space. The practical bathroom is fitted with a panel bath, complete with a screen and shower over, catering to all your needs.

Outside, the beautiful communal gardens provide a serene escape, while secure gated allocated parking adds an extra layer of convenience. This property is offered with no chain, making it ready for you to move in and start enjoying all that our wonderful city has to offer. Don't miss the opportunity to make this charming apartment your new home.
