Morecambe is home to several restaurants, pubs, as well as independent and chain cafes. The area offers an ideal location for families. There are an excellent selection of popular nursery, primary and secondary schools within the catchment area. Additionally, an abundance of sports and activities are on your doorstep, including: Vale of Lune RFC; Morecambe Golf Club; Happy Mount Park; Morecambe Sailing Club; and Salt Ayre Leisure Centre. The natural beauty of nearby Morecambe promenade commands particular attention, with 6 miles of coastline and seaside amenity.

Excellent transport connections provide effortless access to nearby towns and cities. The Bay Gateway on your doorstep, providing direct access to J34 of the M6 and easy onward access to the Lake District National Park (northbound) and Preston (southbound). Bare Lane train station is also within walking distance.

Step inside this charming home and be greeted by an abundance of traditional character. Original stained-glass windows, solid wooden doors, well-proportioned rooms, and classic fireplaces evoke timeless elegance throughout the property.

The living room is a warm and inviting space, styled in neutral tones and flooded with natural light from a beautiful bay window. A striking open fireplace with a marble hearth and mantle serves as the room's focal point, and there's ample space for your furnishings, all complemented by a pleasant front outlook.

To the rear, the second reception room seamlessly opens into the kitchen, forming a spacious and sociable family area. The kitchen is generous in size and well-equipped with an oven, gas hob, extractor fan, and a range of cabinetry. The dining area features a side-facing window and French doors that lead to the utility room.

The utility room is a valuable addition to the home, offering a dedicated space with additional countertop workspace, plumbing for a washing machine, and direct access to a stylish and contemporary downstairs shower room.

From here, step into the extended conservatory at the rear-a bright, flexible living space bathed in natural light thanks to Velux windows, ceiling spotlights, and double glazing on three sides. French doors open out to the beautifully landscaped, sun-drenched rear garden, creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living.

To the first floor, the home offers three bedrooms - two doubles and a well-sized single room - each neutrally decorated and move-in ready. The contemporary bathroom is finished with stylish white tile surrounds and includes a handy linen cupboard.

A standout feature is the converted loft space: fully decorated, with two Velux windows and flooring throughout, this area offers fantastic flexibility as an office, guest room, or play area.

To complete the property, a detached garage and greenhouse add further practicality and appeal. At the front, a gated entrance opens onto a low-maintenance driveway, offering ample off-street parking for multiple vehicles.
