VIDEO TOUR AVAILABLE Located in Stretford is the setting of this stunning bay fronted residence, internally remodelled by the current owners creating spacious living throughout. Normanhurst is a fantastic example of an Edwardian semi-detached home found on highly regarded residential road in Stretford, backing onto Stretford Meadows. The period facade remains, while the interiors have been tastefully updated which extend to over 4,000 sq ft of accommodation including the chamber cellars. There is planning permission with Trafford council no: 112419/HHA/23 - Erection of single storey detached granny annexe to rear of dwelling.

Entry is at ground level, a porch, leading through to an impressive entrance reception hallway with a stunning stained and leaded glazed wooden door, solid wooden flooring, which has access to all reception rooms. An inner hallway leading to a downstairs W.C and chamber cellars, a fitted kitchen/breakfast room to the rear aspect with access into the lounge with a box bay window with views into the rear garden. There is a dining room with a stained and leaded bay window to the front aspect with views over the lawned garden and gravel driveway.

Stairs leading to the first-floor landing that provides an open gallery area with an original wood balustrade and natural light beaming through the stained and leaded feature window to the side aspect, four double bedrooms, and a two-piece bathroom room and a separate W.C.

To the second floor there is a landing leading to a three-piece shower room, two further double bedrooms, a study and dressing room complete this fabulous family home.

The cellars benefit from a hallway leading to a lounge area, three useful storage rooms, a workshop and a utility room which has access via stairs to the side outside area.

Features throughout the property include high ceilings, coving and picture rails, stripped and varnished floor boards, an alarm system, partial double glazing, warmed by boiler provided
