Asking Price £250,000

bramleys

This charming period terraced property has been significantly improved by the current vendor while still offering scope for the new owner to add their own touch. One of its standout features is the delightful, unfolding gardens, which, along with the far-reaching views, enhance its appeal. The property has undergone substantial updates, yet there remains potential to further modernise and transform it into a spacious family home. The well-proportioned accommodation includes an entrance hall, lounge, dining room, and kitchen on the ground floor, a lower ground-floor basement, two generous double bedrooms and a bathroom on the first floor, plus a further spacious attic bedroom with adjoining ensuite. Located in the sought-after district of Holywell Green, it enjoys convenient access to village amenities, highly regarded schools, and excellent transport links to Elland, Halifax, Huddersfield, and the M62 motorway network.
