Larger than most, the property benefits from bedroom space above the passageway, an off shot kitchen and a delightful, well planned rear garden. Entry via the back door into the kitchen with a good range of wall and base units and accompanying works surfaces. Integrated appliances include an eye level double electric oven, slimline dishwasher and space for a washing machine and a free standing American Fridge Freezer. The diner boasts stripped back wooden flooring and feature period fire surround. Handy original floor to ceiling storage cupboards to the side of the chimney breast along with access to the cellar. Door through to the inner lobby with stairs rising and access to the lounge with original picture rails, double coving and an ornate fire surround with fire just for show. The chimney is open but not used. The first floor has a large double bedroom occupying the front of the house with two windows and ample space for bedroom furniture. Further double bedroom to the rear and the family bathroom with bath, shower from taps, W/C and sink basin. Stairs rise to the attic bedroom with a cream carpet and velux window. Outside the property is set back from the road with a pebbled front garden and stone wall. The rear has been carefully designed with wooden sleepers used to create raised pebbled beds and a modern horizontal fence to separate two areas. To the rear is an Indian stone patio ideal for entertaining and summer BBQ's.
