Enjoying a superb, semi-rural location, with views to the Ardgour Hills, and surrounding countryside, the sale offers an exciting, and rarely available opportunity, to purchase a generous building plot. Located at Bunree, in the desirable village of Onich, Plot 3 forms an attractive, level site, extending to around 0.50 acres. Benefiting from Planning Permission in Principle, for the erection of a detached property, the plot is nearby all mains services. It should be noted, that below the moss, at an average depth of 600mm, is alluvial gravel. There are also a further two similar plots, available on the same area of land, Plot 1 and Plot 2, and the bell mouth entrance to all plots, is already in place.

Onich is a charming and sought-after residential village, spread along the coast of Loch Linnhe, with Fort William and Glencoe an easy 15 minute commute in either direction. Offering an abundance of superb walks and trails throughout Glenrigh Forest, in neighbouring Inchree, with its multi-cascade waterfall, the plot is only a short walk or drive to all local amenities and is well placed to take advantage of the numerous leisure and pleasure activities the area has to offer. A popular restaurant and pub, with chalets and bunkhouse on site, is also located in Inchree whilst a two minute trip on the ferry to Ardgour offers further bar & restaurant facilities on the lochside. Onich itself has a filling station with shop, church, village hall, hotels, pubs and restaurants, with the local primary school in nearby North Ballachulish and secondary schools in Fort William, Kinlochleven and Strontian. The area is recognised as the 'Outdoor Capital of the UK' and benefits from year round visitors taking advantage of the excellent outdoor pursuits available throughout the year including walking, mountaineering, ski-ing, sailing, fishing, golf and sight seeing.
