

MO DHACHAIDH | MORAR | PH40 4PB

PRICE GUIDE: £150,000

Situated in the charming West Highland village of Morar, and in close proximity to the world-famous Silver Sands, Mo Dhachaidh forms a desirable, semi-detached dwellinghouse, set in garden grounds of around 0.2 acres. The property provides spacious accommodation, conveniently arranged over two levels and comprises a large dual-aspect lounge/diner with AGA multi-fuel stove, kitchen/diner, three double bedrooms and a shower room, whilst a front and rear porch and understair cupboard provide further good storage space. The property does require upgrading and modernisation however following works, would provide a fantastic first time buyer's home, a permanent family home, or an investment opportunity for the buoyant self-catering market. The adjoining semi-detached property Tigh na Lochan is also available for sale through MacPhee & Partners.

Morar is one of the most scenic and popular West Coast villages, situated on the road between Fort William and Mallaig - "The Road to the Isles". The property is ideally located to explore this extremely attractive part of the Highlands and Inner Isles, famous for the stunning white sandy beaches "The Silver Sands", with views towards the Small Isles of Rum, Eigg, Muck and Canna. The village itself has a primary school, hotel, garage, church, etc with further facilities being available at Arisaig, Mallaig and Fort William - to which there is a link by both road and rail.
