A rare opportunity to acquire a four bedroom detached property with lots of potential for improvement and modernisation, set in one of Hartley's most sought after locations. The property is offered with no onward chain.

This family house has been a cherished home for one family for many years and is now introduced to the market offering enormous potential for extension (STPP), modernisation and improvement.

The accommodation as it stands is more than ample with its large L-shaped living room, separate dining room, kitchen, utility room and family room downstairs. Along with four bedrooms, ensuite to master bedroom, and a large family bathroom all upstairs.

The wide plot provides ample space around the house as well as very good side front and rear gardens. With no onward chain, early viewing is highly recommended.
