This extended three bedroom mid terrace home offers fantastic accommodation for the family and is ready to just move into. The property has a large ground floor extension with bifold doors across the rear which really open the garden into the house. Internal viewing is a must.

Step inside this extended home and you are met with a beautiful modern space for todays family. The large through lounge is the perfect place to relax and opens onto the dining room with its bifold doors across the rear.

The modern kitchen also has access to the dining room providing a beautiful modern open plan space.

Upstairs the three bedrooms and family bathroom offer plenty of room for each member of the family to have their own space.

Outside, the low maintenance garden really feels like an extension of the house when the bifold doors are open. The property also has the benefit of a nearby single garage.
