Directions: From Fakenham take the A.148 Holt & Cromer Road. Proceed for 9 miles (past the Sharrington Strawberries shop), and turn right (just before the left hand turning signposted B.1156 Blakeney), onto Upper Hall Lane. Follow the road for about 375 yards and turn sharp left into The Street, as signed posted 'Village Hall'. The property is on the right.

Location: Sharrington is a picturesque Conservation village – famous for its local strawberries – and having an historic parish Church at one end, and a thriving village hall at the opposite end, set in lovely, gently rolling countryside in the heart of North Norfolk. The Georgian town of Holt is situated 4 miles away, has an attractive range of boutique shops, cafes and restaurants as well as Gresham's Public School. Fakenham Market Town is 9 miles distant and offers excellent shopping, educational, sporting & leisure facilities as well as National Hunt Racecourse. The North Norfolk Coast, noted for its sailing and bird watching, sandy beaches and golf is within easy motoring distance.
