DESCRIPTION

This slightly elevated stone terrace cottage Built Circa 1867 and extended prior to 1979 is located within a small row of attractive cottages within a sought after and popular location above the town of Whaley Bridge. Although the cottage has a rural setting with panoramic scenery it is only a short distance by a surfaced pathway down to the town which provides comprehensive amenities including shops, cafes, schools, Peak Forest Canal, countryside walks from the doorstep and frequent rail links to Manchester and a direct bus route to Manchester International Airport. The accommodation has gas central heating complimented by double glazing and provides an entrance vestibule, sitting room with feature fire place incorporating a multi fuel stove, fitted dining kitchen which can seat six, rear hallway with access to the garden, boiler cupboard, a large laundry pantry/storage area and a bathroom. The first floor landing leads to two double bedrooms and a single bedroom. The main bedroom has a vaulted ceiling with roof lights. Throughout the property there are cottage features including exposed stone walls and beams. There is the availability of purchasing a garage and driveway which is located a short walk from the property. This would be by separate negotiation to the house price. Externally to the front of the property there is a gravelled path with borders and hedging, seating area with beautiful views, pathway and steps that lead to the front door. The rear garden is enclosed by fencing, terrace area and steps that take you to a gravelled bed with flowering borders and a large seating/ entertaining patio with views.

LOCATION

Set amid the rolling hills of the beautiful Peak District, Whaley Bridge is an ideal location situated in the picturesque Goyt Valley it is within close proximity to the beautiful Fernilee and Errwood reservoirs with the Peak Forest Canal at its heart and close to the Spa Town of Buxton. The town has a good selection of shops, public houses and restaurants. There are good commuter links to Manchester and the surrounding towns, by both rail and bus.
