DESCRIPTION

This is a rare opportunity to be able to purchase a fabulous Victorian detached true bungalow with accommodation just to the ground floor but with the added bonus of a very impressive contemporary extension to the rear giving a sense of Swiss chalet style living. Located within an established picturesque plot of approximately one third of an acre therefore offering generous gardens to both the front and rear including the privilege of a side driveway which offers parking for several vehicles plus a garage. Located within a popular area and a desirable road which has the benefit of being on the edge of countryside yet a short distance to larger towns with good amenities, shops, cafes and commuter links. Furness Vale itself has a primary school and a rail station/ bus service with links to Manchester and beyond. As you enter this home it has a homely feel which has the pleasure of underfloor heating. The accommodation provides an open Victorian veranda, reception hallway which leads through to a contemporary fitted kitchen with cloaks/wc., and rear hall/utility which then takes you through to the magnificent bright spacious sitting/dining room with feature wood burning stove and picture double glazed windows/french door which overlooks the lovely mature garden. From the reception hallway as you enter from the front there are three double bedrooms and a modern bathroom.

LOCATION

Set amid the rolling hills of the beautiful Peak District, Furness Vale is an ideal location with excellent commuter links and it is within close proximity to the beautiful Peak Forest Canal, Fernilee and Errwood reservoirs. There are good commuter links to Manchester and the surrounding towns, by both rail and bus and close to larger towns with general shops, supermarkets, schools and cafes.
