DESCRIPTION

If you are looking for a charming and true stone cottage which is full of original charm and character then this home should be viewed. Believed to previously be the Yellow Cat Public House this cottage has a lovely spacious feel as you enter and some of the character features include exposed beams, stone fireplaces and stone flagged floors. Warmed by gas central heating and has been recently re-painted throughout the cottage provides a spacious reception hallway with staircase to the first floor, large sitting room with feature fireplace including a multi fuel stove plus there is an open plan fitted kitchen with dining area. There is also a door from the kitchen to the cellar room. The first floor landing leads to three bedrooms the main bedroom having built in wardrobes and the third bedroom also has a built in wardrobe. The bathroom has a more contemporary style fitting with shower bath, mounted wash hand basin and WC. The exterior of the property has a cottage style planting to the front with stone flagged pathway and offers views. The rear garden is tiered and provides a stone flagged area from the kitchen door up to a level of grass and then a further level which has a bigger lawn garden with beautiful views. Buxworth is a small countryside village with the Peak Forest Canal at it's heart and there are outstanding countryside walks from the doorstep.

The larger towns of Whaley Bridge, Chapel-en-le-Frith and New Mills have more comprehensive amenities including frequent rail links to Manchester and beyond and the nearby village of Chinley has additional rail links to Sheffield. Viewing this cottage comes highly recommended.

LOCATION

Buxworth is a pretty hamlet with a canalside location. Nearby Whaley Bridge is an attractive small rural village within the beautiful area of the High Peak. The village offers an excellent range of day to day facilities with a range of shops (including Tescos), restaurants and primary schools and there is a wide range of recreational facilities within the area. Nearby Chapel en le Frith and New Mills offer all the facilities of thriving small towns. There are good travel links including rail services to Manchester city centre.
