CHINLEY HEAD FARM

Hayfield Road, Chinley

A rare CHARACTER 17TH CENTURY GRADE II LISTED FARMHOUSE which is discreetly hidden from the road and offers so many HISTORIC FEATURES including STONE FIREPLACES. The property has TWO RECEPTION ROOMS, breakfast kitchen, GALLERY LIBRARY above the sitting room and two bedrooms. There is an additional STONE BARN ANNEXE, gardens, gated PARKING AND VIEWS. A unique historic grade II listed stone detached cottage farmhouse believed to have been built circa 1620 with views. Any potential purchaser looking for a quirky and unique property, Chinley Head Farm will not disappoint. The property was believed to be the local public house in the 17th Century and provides unusual quaint characterful accommodation with exposed beams, exposed stone work, mullion windows and exquisite stone fireplaces. In addition to the farmhouse accommodation there is an established converted stone barn which provides small occasional annexe living. The accommodation to Chinley Head Farm provides an entrance porch and reception hallway, sitting room with vaulted beamed ceiling incorporating an impressive galleried library/study, dining room with an impressive stone fireplace, breakfast kitchen with Rayburn, utility/store room and cloaks/W.C. The first floor offers two double bedrooms, bathroom and galleried library/study area. Although the property has a semi rural location with views over the mature hedging of the surrounding Peak District countryside it has easy access to Hayfield and Chinley with shops, cafes, restaurants/ public houses, walks from the door step and excellent public transport links to major towns and cities.

LOCATION

Set amid the rolling hills of the Peak District National Park, Hayfield is an ideal and sought after location which is within close proximity to the scenic Kinder, Fernilee and Errwood reservoirs. The attractive village has a good selection of shops, public houses, cafes, restaurants, primary school and walks from your doorstep. There are good commuter links to Manchester and the surrounding towns by both rail and bus. Manchester International Airport is approximately 16 miles away, taking the A555.
