Samuel Wood is pleased to present to the market this beautifully and sympathetically restored Edwardian mid-terrace property occupying a prime position within this traditional neighbourhood. Conveniently located with Telford town centre and extensive amenities within easy driving distance, and benefit of excellent road links to Shrewsbury and West Midlands via the M54. Viewing is recommended by the selling agent.

The ground floor reception rooms feature solid oak floors, traditional ceiling timbers, a standout wood burner, plantation shutters and a combination of cast iron pillar and modern radiators. The kitchen is styled with contemporary fittings, including a limestone tiled floor, plantation shutters, plus high-end Neff and Siemens appliances.

The property boasts a spacious landing, an impressive double bedroom and an attractive second bedroom. The bathroom includes a twin-end traditional style bath and wash hand basin with Heritate taps, a high level WC, plus a walk-in shower enclosure.

A garage and driveway are located at the end of the row of houses, providing convenient and secure off-street parking.

This property offers a blend of character and modern amenities, making it an inviting home in a desirable location.
