"Windy Corner" offers a retreat in the midst of picturesque countryside, spanning 6.33 acres of registered land. This eco-friendly property boasts a range of features including solar panels, emphasising sustainable living. The main residence comprises a charming two-bedroom cottage, complemented by a separate one-bedroom annexe plus a converted store room which provides further accommodation, featuring three bedrooms, a bathroom, and an open-plan kitchen/living room layout.

Ideal for equestrian enthusiasts, the property is equipped with stables and barns, catering to the needs of horses. Beyond the residential area, Windy Corner offers ample space for outdoor activities with its campsite, providing opportunities for recreation and relaxation amidst nature's beauty.

"Windy Corner" presents a two-bedroom cottage with the ground floor comprising an entrance porch leading the hall. Access is then given to the living room and kitchen, both of which lead to a spacious garden room with five picture windows to enjoy the surround views. Ascending to the first floor, two bedrooms await and family bathroom to include both a bath and separate shower cubicle.

For additional accommodation one bedroom annexe is adjacent to a good sized stable block, above which is a converted store room which has been transformed into an open-plan layout with a combined kitchen and living area, bathroom and three bedrooms, offering ample room for guests or extended family members.

Windy Corner boasts a variety of outbuildings, including stables and barns, catering to the needs of equestrian enthusiasts or those seeking additional storage space. There is also small campsite with a meadow and brook, nestled at the base of Pontesbury Hill.

Directions

Directions: From Shrewsbury take the A488 signposted Pontesbury and Minsterley. Continue through the village of Hanwood and take the left hand turning onto the Plealey road (approximately 200 yards after passing the Lea Cross Tandoori). Continue until you reach a crossroads, continue straight over the crossroads and continue up the lane for approximately half a mile where you will come to a left hand bend with a turning on the right to a track. Follow this track all the way to the end and you will arrive at the entrance gate for Windy Comer.
