Samuel Wood is delighted to offer for sale this beautifully presented family home in Cruckton, west Shropshire. Offering a blend of traditional charm with a contemporary finish, the well designed property boasts pleasant countryside living spaces all complemented by a landscaped wrap around garden. Set within an extensive plot there is practicality with parking for multiple vehicles. Situated in the highly sought after village of Cruckton close to two useful road links, pleasant rural walks, village hall, pubs and a school. Viewing is highly recommended by the selling agent.

I Cruckton Hall Gardens is a charming four-bedroom semi-detached property located in the picturesque village of Cruckton, West Shropshire. The ground floor offers a spacious, open-plan country-style kitchen diner, perfect for family meals and entertaining. In addition, there are two bedrooms, one of which is currently being used as a study, providing flexibility for home office needs. The cosy living room, separate dining room and utility area complete the layout, along with a well-appointed bathroom that serves the ground floor.

Upstairs, the property boasts two generous bedrooms, both with en-suite bathrooms, providing privacy and convenience for family members or guests. The large landing is a standout feature, illuminated by dual-aspect Velux windows that flood the space with natural light, creating a delightful area that could serve as a reading nook or additional sitting area. The upstairs layout offers a blend of comfort and modern functionality.

The outdoor space of I Cruckton Hall Gardens is equally impressive, with a beautifully landscaped wrap-around garden that offers a peaceful retreat. There is ample parking with a front and rear driveway that can accommodate up to five vehicles, providing convenience for homeowners and visitors alike. The garden's design complements the rural charm of the property, making it a perfect setting for outdoor activities or relaxation in a scenic countryside setting.
