We welcome you to the epitome of elegance and luxury living within this desirable location just off the respected Sutton Road, Shrewsbury. Located approximately one mile from the town centre this exquisite Stone House presents an unparalleled opportunity to invest in refined living. From the moment you step through the doors, you'll be captivated by the meticulous attention to detail and high degrees of improvements that adorn every corner of this architectural gem. Boasting a stylishly designed interior arranged across ground, first, and second floor levels, this property offers a rare option for those seeking an individual, prime property.

The ground floor welcomes you with a lovely entrance hall with Amtico flooring which leads to a magnificent drawing room with dining area, perfect for entertaining guests in style. The bespoke David Harthill contemporary shaker style kitchen complete with a range of NEFF appliances, is a culinary enthusiast's dream together with a family-oriented breakfast area.

Ascend the beautiful staircase to discover a spacious landing serving three generously sized bedrooms, one of which provides an art deco inspired en-suite bathroom. A further shower room on this level ensures comfortable arrangements for family and guests. The second floor comprises two additional bedrooms or fitted home office, catering to the modern-day need for flexible living spaces.

Outside, the beauty of this property continues with a lovely garden extending to 0.21 acre, providing a serene area for relaxation and outdoor enjoyment. A double garage has power, lighting, shelves and an automated door. An ornamental gateway and railings lead to the stunning courtyard garden which is adjacent to the house providing exquisite area for outside socialising.

Rest assured, this property has been meticulously maintained, with the kitchen and Worcester gas fire boiler replaced within the last two years. Its private setting adds to the allure, from the adjacent shared entrance making it a truly special find for even the most discerning buyers. This is a rare opportunity to make this exceptional property yours. Contact us today to arrange a viewing and experience the epitome of luxurious living.
