This charming Grade II Listed three-bedroom townhouse enjoys an enviable position on historic Abbey Foregate, with beautiful views across the grounds of Shrewsbury Abbey and just a short walk from the town centre. Offering spacious and versatile accommodation over three floors, the property blends period character with practical living. The ground floor features well-proportioned reception space, while the upper levels provide comfortable bedrooms and additional flexibility for home working or guest use. A useful cellar offers excellent storage or potential for further use. Outside, residents benefit from access to a mature, shared walled garden, providing a peaceful retreat in the heart of the town. Situated close to excellent local amenities and major road links, this is an ideal home for those seeking convenience, heritage, and charm.

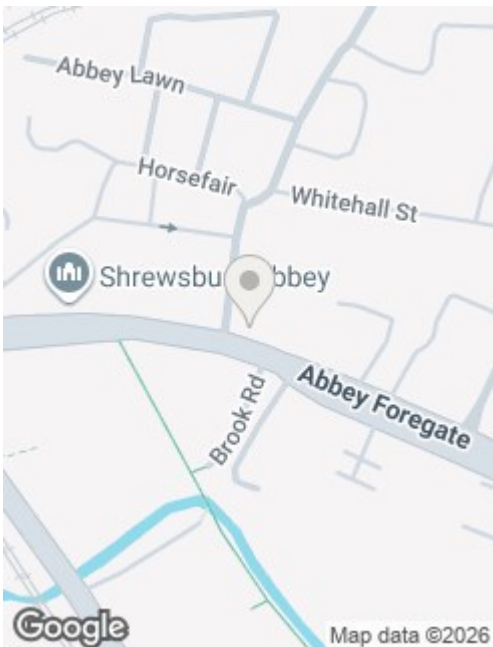

The ground floor is entered via a long reception hall leading to a welcoming living room, featuring a window to the front and an attractive fireplace that adds warmth and character. An open layout connects the living room to the breakfast kitchen, which enjoys a quarry-tiled floor and space for informal dining. From here, a door leads into the practical utility room, providing additional storage and access to the rear of the property. A useful cellar sits beneath the house, offering excellent storage or potential for further use, enhancing the functionality of this charming home.

The first-floor landing leads to a generous double bedroom with pleasant natural light and feature fireplace, alongside a well-proportioned bathroom and a spacious storage cupboard on the landing. Moving up to the second floor, the landing opens to two further double bedrooms, each offering flexibility for use as guest rooms, home offices, or additional living space. Both rooms retain the property's period charm while providing comfortable accommodation with elevated views. The layout across the upper floors ensures privacy and versatility, making the home well suited to families, couples, or those seeking room for hobbies and working from home.

Outside, the property enjoys access to a delightful, established shared garden. Filled with mature planting, seasonal colour, and thoughtfully maintained spaces, it provides a peaceful haven ideal for relaxing, entertaining, or simply enjoying the outdoors. The location on Abbey Foregate is highly desirable, offering a vibrant blend of character and convenience. Residents benefit from an excellent range of local amenities including cafés, independent shops, pubs, and supermarkets, all within easy walking distance. With the town centre nearby and strong road links accessible, this setting perfectly balances historic charm with modern-day practicality.
