3 Bedroom House - Terraced located in Crawley

3-bedroom terraced house in the popular Three Bridges area of Crawley. The property is conveniently located within walking distance of Crawley town centre and Three Bridges mainline train station, perfect for families, professionals, or those needing easy access to local amenities and transportation

The ground floor features a welcoming entrance hall leading to a spacious lounge and a separate dining room, both filled with natural light. The kitchen is fitted with a range of base and eye-level units, a stainless-steel sink with mixer taps, and space for essential appliances. There is also a convenient storeroom for additional storage.

Upstairs, the property offers three good-sized bedrooms and a family bathroom, with a separate WC for added convenience.

The property benefits from front and rear gardens, with the rear garden being fully enclosed and providing a private outdoor space, ideal for relaxing or entertaining. Additional features include double-glazed windows throughout and gas central heating.
