MILEHAM

Nestled between the busy market towns of Swaffham, Dereham and Fakenham, Mileham is conveniently positioned for access to much of Norfolk, and it's also within easy reach of the city of Norwich and the medieval town of King's Lynn. Whether it's market day stalls or just a stroll down the high street, there are plenty of nearby choices for shopping.

Dating back to around 1100, Mileham Castle straddles the B1145, once the main route across the county, positioned to raise tolls from travellers and possibly revenue from the marketplace. Although now largely in ruins, the castle remains form a surprisingly impressive monument and are today used as a nature reserve.

The village itself has a general store with a post office, St John the Baptist Church, and a garden nursery. There's also friendly community and a village hall, which is used by a number of organisations and groups. Mileham is a popular village and is in the catchment area for Litcham School. Litcham, just two miles away also has a village pub and Litcham Deli, a popular spot for lunch, coffee and cake, or srocking up on fabulous local produce. The village's rural surroundings provide a plethora of wonderful countryside walks on the doorstep.

Slightly further afield is the beautiful, north Norfolk coast. From the quiet sandy beaches of Holkham, to the traditional seaside towns of Cromer and Wells-next-the-Sea, there is much to explore and discover.
