Description

This superb period property has been refurbished to the highest possible standard and offers a rare opportunity to secure a prestigious town centre property. The accommodation is particularly flexible and would suit a number of uses such as Dentistry, Beauty, Education, Training, General Offices etc.

A large entrance hallway leads onto three spacious rooms/offices and a well proportioned W.C. The ground floor also provides access to the rear yard, storage room and cellar. To the first floor are two further offices and a kitchen/staff rom which could be used as an additional office. Completing the first floor are a shower room and two W.C.
